Covid Update

Our William St. lobby is open to our members, with a maximum occupancy of 8 people at this time. We continue to encourage our members to utilize our online services along with our drive through at Orchard Park to limit exposure to yourself and our staff. If you need help with your online services, please feel free to call for assistance.

Our Orchard Park location is drive thru or ATM ONLY. If you must utilize the lobby at William St, please remember to social distance. The following procedure will be put in place for your protection.

- Every member must sign in and provide the following:
  - Full name and phone number
- When approaching a teller window, member must remove their mask to verify identity. Once identity has been verified, you may replace your mask.
- If you are uncomfortable with these procedures, our drive-thru in Orchard Park and our online services are always available.
- To ensure your safety, we are temperature checking our employees daily and will be wearing appropriate safety protection. We will have hand sanitizer available throughout the credit union, and will be disinfecting periodically through the day.

We will keep you updated of any changes during this time. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding. Stay safe!
